

SAVE THE TREES

Story By

Leslie Eva Tayloe

Illustrated By

Lintang Pandu Pratiwi

Ronnie loves trees. So when strange vines appear all over town, strangling the trees and making them fall over, he jumps into action right away! But Ronnie's just one kid, and even with friends and family helping to pick, pull, and pluck the vines, they just grow faster every day!

If he really wants to save the trees, Ronnie will have to get the whole town to help out . . . before it's too late!

About the Author

Leslie Eva Tayloe's inspiration for writing comes from her personal life experiences. Her debut picture book, I'm Fishing with Pop-Pop Today (2022), captures the story of her grandson fishing with his pop-pop. Leslie holds a master's degree in human resource management from the University of Maryland. She is a former analyst with the federal government and has worked as a substitute teacher for elementary school-aged children.

Leslie resides in Virginia countryside with her partner, Michael; over twenty-five species of trees; a large fishing pond; two cats; and a dog. Besides writing, Leslie enjoys reading and crafting. Please visit her at leslieevatayloe.com

About the Illustrator

Lintang Pandu Pratiwi was born in Indonesia. She has worked for many years as a professional illustrator and created many picture books for various publishers and clients. Through her studio, Taranggana, Lintang has been published throughout America, the United Kingdom, Germany, Spain, Australia, Indonesia, Singapore, and Japan. She loves art and nature and is inspired by the nostalgia of childhood innocence and beautiful countryside. Lintang's parents, Widayati Sri Wulandari and Mudjab Widjaya, are her biggest inspirations in life. Having their everlasting and continuing support has provided her with good examples of how to live her life and be successful in her own way.
